

WIN £10,000

IT IS Star Trek Week in TODAY and you could share in our great giveaway of prizes worth more than £10,000.

We have teamed up with Shell UK Oil to celebrate their exciting £1,500,000 Star Trek scratchcard promotion on their service station forecourts. Our prizes, exclusive to TODAY readers, are £5,000 cash, with runners-up prizes of eight £500 worth of Shell fuel, and 25 sets of CIC Star Trek videos worth £50 a set.

To be in with a chance of winning study the names of the nine planets on our Star Trek map, right. Captain Kirk and the crew of the Enterprise need your help to eliminate eight of the planets. They must boldly go to the remaining one.

● CIC Star Trek videos are on sale through major high street video retailers at £9.99 each.)

STAR TREK[®] TREASURE HUNT

Here is today's rhyme to eliminate two more planets: Greek letters with a five or three Will not lead where you want to be.

Yesterday's clue was:
Two planets with a Six
Do not hold the key
Two-faced or three-sided
You can let them be.

HOW TO ENTER

SOLVE the daily rhymes this week. Each rhyme will eliminate one or two of the planets on the map. You must eliminate all but one planet. You must also answer the following two simple questions.

1. What is the maximum number of panels you can uncover to win the Shell/Star Trek —The Game competition?
2. What colour hose depicts Shell unleaded fuel on a petrol pump? You can find answers to these questions at any shell service station forecourt. TODAY rules apply.

WIN £1,000 GOLD CARD

ONE winner, Ian Stevenson, of Kent, scooped Saturday's £1,000 Gold Card prize while Stephen Heap, of Ringwood, Carlisle's Olive Bell, James Ronald, of Basildon, and Wirral's Sydney Lynch-Yates each won £250 in yesterday's game. To be in with a chance of winning, read the ten questions on the right.

Fill in the answers in the spaces provided — one letter from each answer will fall in a circle. If all eight of your Gold Card letters are contained in the circles you could win or share £1,000. A checklist of letters is on Page 26. To claim call 071 867 0400 between 10am and 4pm today.
